

Sienambiente is a company which operates in the management of the complete waste cycle, in the sector of renewable energies and energetic efficiency. Through subsidiaries, it is also active in the field of the green economy and environmental services. It places its services at the disposal of the companies that belong to the "Terre di Siena Green" circuit, for energetic assessments and the construction of photovoltaic and wind-power plants.

www.sienambiente.it