

Terrecablate, a local telecommunications operator, adopted an environmental sustainability code several years ago, which identified a series of actions undertaken in defence of the environment, including the purchase of company vehicles powered by natural gas and the choice of products with a low environmental impact. It offers economic benefits on its services to the companies belonging to the "Terre di Siena Green" network.

www.terrecablate.it